To Whom It May Concern

In compliance with the vision and mission of the University, the University is dedicated to promote education among the students from the marginalized sections of the society. Hence, as per the social responsibility of the University, the vacant seats in reserved categories, after two rounds of admissions, have been converted to other reserved categories as per the applications received. It has been duly taken care of that no student of any category is adversely affected. This policy has been adopted by the University in the wider interest of the weaker and marginalized section of the society.
